CALL TO ORDER

The meeting was called to order by Board Chairman, Hank Barnette at 8:30 a.m. New members, Ralph Sevy and Joseph Campbell, were duly sworn in.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

Mr. Jones moved that the West Virginia University Board of Governors go into executive session pursuant to West Virginia Code §6-9A-4(2)(A) to discuss personnel and management issues. The motion was seconded and passed, and the Board thereupon met in executive session. Following the discussion, Mr. Jones moved that the Board rise from executive session. The motion was seconded and passed.

RECESS

Chairman Barnette declared the meeting in recess to allow committees to meet and to allow participants to view the televised memorial services of President Ronald Reagan.

The meeting reconvened at 1:00 p.m.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Mr. Jones moved that the minutes of the meeting of April 2, 2004 be approved as written. The motion was seconded and passed*.

CHAIRMAN’S COMMENTS

Mr. Barnette thanked everyone for their patience in allowing time for the observance of the services for President Reagan.

PRESIDENT’S COMMENTS

President David Hardesty asked that his comments be deferred until the end of the meeting.

*Unless otherwise stated, all motions were passed unanimously.
COMMITTEE REPORTS

Executive: Hank Barnette reported that the Executive Committee had received the annual report of Jennifer McIntosh, the Executive Officer for Social Justice, had heard a report on Tenure from Provost Lang, and had reviewed board governance. They had also reviewed a number of other issues on the agenda as action items.

Academic Affairs: Terry Jones, reporting for Paul Gates, chairman of the Academic Affairs committee, noted that the committee had heard reports about the Student Service Learning Program, the University’s Assessment planning efforts, and the Minority Doctoral Program. A number of Minority Doctoral Program participants had attended the committee meeting as part of the report.

Business Affairs: Joe Lopez reported that the Business Affairs Committee had considered nine action items. He asked Vice President Scott Kelly to briefly summarize two of the major issues: the 2004-2005 financial plan, and the ten year master plan for housing.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Terry Jones reporting for the nominating committee, nominated Doug Leech as Board Chairman, Joe Lopez as Vice Chairman, and Paul Gates as Secretary. The nominations were seconded, and the officers were unanimously elected.

INFORMATION ITEMS

Three reports were given:

Annual Report of the Director of Intercollegiate Athletics: Ed Pastilong, Director of Athletics, gave his annual update on the status of the Athletic Department, it Building Program, student achievement and athletic success.

Monthly and Quarterly Financial Indicators: Gary Rogers noted that the University has recently received a second A+ Bond Rating, and he reviewed the financial reports, noting that all indicators are on target for the fiscal year, as projected.

Annual Report of the Student Representative: Charlie Battleson, Student Representative to the Board of Governors gave his annual report. He also thanked the board for his year on the Board, and reported on his recent graduation and employment in Maryland.

ACTION ITEMS

Based on discussions of each item at the respective Committee meeting, an explanation of each to the full board, and recommendations for approval by the appropriate committee, Mr. Barnette asked for final discussion on any action item. Dr. Wilkinson requested a separate vote on two personnel items because of their significance.

There being no further questions, upon motion duly made by Mr. Jones (unless otherwise noted) and seconded, the following items were approved unanimously.
1. Modification of Operating Procedures

OTHER BUSINESS

Chairman Barnette presented resolutions honoring outgoing Board member Charles Battleson, and outgoing interim president of WVU-P, Joseph Badgley, and moved their adoption. The motion was seconded and passed. Mr. Barnette presented Mr. Battleson with his certificate and thanked him for his service on the Board and to the University. Mr. Barnette asked that Dr. Badgley’s resolution be mailed to him. (Resolutions are attached.)

PRESIDENT’S REMARKS

President Hardesty thanked members of the Board for their service, noting the uncertainty of Gubernatorial reappointments. He thanked Mr. Battleson for his service to the Board and the University, and promised that the University would address the issues raised in his annual report.

President Hardesty thanked Chairman Barnette for his exceptional leadership of the Board over the past two years, and presented him with an inscribed Gavel and a commemorative picture to honor his service as Chairman. Incoming President Doug Leech read a proposed resolution honoring Mr. Barnette. Mr. Jones moved its adoption, the motion was seconded and passed unanimously. (See attached resolution.)

Mr. Barnette thanked the Board for their support, noted the strength of the University’s leadership and governance structure, and forecast a bright future for West Virginia University.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 3:30 p.m.

Virginia Petersen
Assistant Secretary
Modification of Operating Procedures
(approved June 11, 2004)

Relationship of the Board and Regional Campus Presidents

Regional campus presidents of West Virginia University shall serve at the will and pleasure of the Board of Governors of West Virginia University. They shall be subject to its policies, resolutions, rules and regulations, as well as those of the Higher Education Policy Commission and the Community and Technical College Council, to the extent applicable.

The Board of Governors may require annual and periodic reports from regional campus presidents, at its discretion. Further, the Board of Governors shall take up for discussion and decision such matters as are presented to it by regional campus presidents, subject to the establishment of such topics as agenda items by the Chair of the Board of Governors.

The Board hereby authorizes and directs the President of West Virginia University to oversee the recruitment of regional campus presidents, subject to final approval by the Board.

The Board hereby authorizes and directs the President of West Virginia University to oversee the work of the regional campus presidents as part of the work previously delegated to the President as chief executive officer of the University.

Further, the President may require that Regional Campus Presidents report to and through the Provost on a day to day basis in order to provide for maximum coordination of the work of all units and campuses of the University. (The Provost is currently designated by the Board as the CEO of the University in the event of the President’s death, disability, or unavailability, and serves as the chief academic officer of the university and chair of its major budget and planning committees.)
West Virginia University
Presidential Goals, 2004-2005

1. Advance the Vision and Strategic Plan of the University Through Strategic Planning & Leadership Initiatives.
The President will further advance and support activities that focus WVU as a student centered learning community which addresses the changing needs of West Virginia and the nation through its teaching, research, service and technology. He will further develop WVU’s brand as a student centered environment, foster new programs that enhance academic quality and reputation, support new and expanding research centers, invest in technology, demonstrate WVU’s usefulness for the State and achieve the strategic plan for the University. Specifically, the President will actively guide the preparation of a strategic plan covering the period January 1, 2005 through December 31, 2010 to be presented to the Board on or before November, 2004, and launch its execution on or about January 1, 2005.

2. Maintain Sound Financial Condition
The President and Vice Presidents will continue to use their best efforts to cause the University to maintain a sound financial condition. The president will lead efforts to examine the implications of reductions in state appropriations to the University, to develop appropriate short term and long term strategies and actions to lessen the impact of proposed reductions on the University, and to continue the advancement of the University.

The President and his staff will provide a review of the current Fiscal Year financials and present a set of assumptions and a budget for the next fiscal year. A financial plan to accompany the university’s new strategic plan will be prepared.

3. Foster accountability and responsiveness to the State and its citizens
The compact of the institution serves as the state mandated guide for appropriate actions for all campuses of WVU. Overseeing its implementation to the extent possible given the University’s resources, amending it when necessary, and providing periodic reports to the Chancellor and appropriate boards will be given priority. Issues to be addressed include: undergraduate academic excellence, access, enrollment management, graduate education, library resource access, research capacity, economic and community development, integration of campuses, health care cost and delivery, workforce development, service to the public, employee compensation, student success and placement, public school improvement, and advancing the vision of the University.

4. Facilitate State Leadership
The President will establish a close working relationship, to the extent possible, with the newly elected Governor of West Virginia and members of the state legislature. Efforts in this regard will begin prior to the 2004 general election, and carry on as the next administration and legislative leadership teams are established.

The President will identify and pursue strategies that will enhance the economy of the state of West Virginia, and support efforts to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of related programs and policies, within the confines of the University’s resources.
5. Complete scheduled Vice Presidential Evaluations
   To the extent required by law and in accordance with good management practices, the president will oversee evaluations of his direct reports preparing such reports and participating in such meetings as may be required to complete the evaluations. For 2004-2005, such evaluations are scheduled for the following positions: 1.) Vice President for Health Sciences, Robert D’Alessandri; 2.) Executive Officer for Social Justice, Jennifer McIntosh; and 3.) Director of Intercollegiate Athletics, Ed Pastilong. Results of the evaluations will be shared with the Board’s Executive Committee.

6. Lead Operations and Capital Construction
   The president, as chief executive officer, will provide the leadership and appropriate oversight of University operations, and through attention to budgeting and contracting processes and appropriate internal and external controls, focus on compliance with law, successful financial performance, and timely completion of University capital projects.

7. Provide Management Succession, Leadership Training and Development
   Through goal setting with senior executives, training, hiring, mentoring, sponsorship of meetings and the use of consultants, the President will advance the quality of leadership for the institution, provide an appropriate management structure for the complex Morgantown enterprise and the University’s regional campuses, and plan for management succession. The President will continue to improve his own professionalism, keeping himself informed about developments in higher education and his own discipline by attendance at meetings and seminars, contact with executive peers and consultants, and through personal study.

8. Support Institutional Advancement and Fund Raising
   The President will support the preparation of post capital campaign fund raising goals and objectives in cooperation with the WVU Foundation. The President will continue to focus on donor relations (including the “Blue and Gold Travelers’ Program”) and lead fund raising activities by University employees on all campuses. During the coming year, special attention will be paid to government relations and related strategies, and implementation of post Capital Campaign fund raising strategies.

9. Evaluate and Manage Enrollment
   The president will provide oversight of University enrollment management related issues, including the expansion of the University, non-resident enrollment, and appropriate standards for admission and entrance into the various majors and programs. Emphasis will be placed on the University’s honors programs, implementation of the Promise Scholarship programs, and adept use of existing scholarships based on need and merit to attract high quality students to all campuses. The President will seek to ensure efficient implementation of private scholarship programs.

10. Facilitate Effective Governance
    The President will continue to work closely with the Board of Governors in order to create a highly effective system of governance for the University. He will keep the Board informed and, when appropriate, involved in significant decisions related to the well-being of the University. New members of the Board will be offered orientation and the President will support the new chair of the Board and the members of the Board in their work. The President and his staff will periodically brief the chair, executive committee and Board on major issues facing the University and present all appropriate items for action to the Board along with management’s recommendations.
